tion of time paid for, unless renewed.

POLITICAL. 8329.

was year if you sold, Jim Garfield, For those ten little shares of stock? Taxa your grip and your hold, Jim Garfield, On integrity a solid rock. For greed if palf you weighted yourself With the worst of distincesty's collars, And the precious gold of truth you sold For $029.

TIVE EXECUTIVE COMMUTEE.

be prepared to say that will never have a value.

C. Burnun would make the commute party in this tive executive commutee.

The community council, who have so gener-To the Democratic and Conservative Voters of bonds.)

in the face of the cornal howl against site of the country with which the monomentalists and the use of the public, the common school is duly recognized in the "New Yorking shapping and common field for actual settlers, honest the business wants of the country, the common school is duly recognized in the "New Yorking shapping and common school is duly recognized in the "New Yorking shapping and country the common school is duly recognized in the success of Hancock and Eaglish the country may build up a school system to the tight, where the United Annes E. Colgate & 12 the glass and their organs are constantly telling the people that the dollar of the butters is a shirm and a source, is only which the organized by the common school is duly recognized in the success of Hancock and Eaglish the country may build up a school system to the two sections of the people and privileges of all classes and races of the people are guaranteed by James E. Colgate & 12 the glass the country may build up a school system to the two which the success of Hancock and Eaglish the country is the common school is duly recognized in the work and gold, and in sufficient volume to meet the business wants of the country is the common school is duly recognized in the success of Hancock and Eaglish the country is the common school is duly recognized in the country is the common school is duly recognized in the work and Eaglish the country is the common school is duly recognized in the success of Hancock and Eaglish the country is the common school is duly recognized in the work and gold and the success of Hancock and Eaglish the country is the common school is duly recognized in the success of Hancock and Eaglish the country is the common school is duly recognized in the work and gold and privileges, and in every tespect vastly superior to that which we now have; while the rights and privileges of the people at a work and or phase in the country is the common school is duly recognized in the success of Hancock and Eaglish and privileges of t So legal tember and the source of the county of the source of the source

A Spoulaneous Nomination.

Gen Hancock s nomination was forced upon the Convention by the Democratic popular will have a management or bargatung. It is friends came here with neither processions, nor music, nor banners, nor ostenuation. Their beadquarters were simple, and faexpensive and retired; their arguments were chains were modest; their arguments were simple and faexpensive and retired; their occurs for the peppular convertions and polyments of delegates from districts, and because of delegates from districts, and because and States—not from the public crib—enh for a return to peace, harmony and a true republicanism.

The statement of the President was unquestioned by a triemplant and overwhelming majority, that induces us to didate.

A Good Fellow.

Washington Post.]

Weaver, of Iowa, the Greenback candidate for President, is one of the best follows.

Tippah County----Hancock and English Rally.

The growd repaired to the Court-house and were addressed by Col. N. C. Falker, Dr. John V. Murry, Capt. Thos. Spight and Mr. G. C. Walter, in the order named. The speakers exarbited no little carnestness and enthusiasm all appeared to be vary confilent not only o the election of Hancock, but thus it elected he would take his sear. At the class of the speaking a Domocratic Central Club was organized by the election of Col. W. C. Falkner, President; Hon. W. A. Bayd, Vice-President. and C. D. Carrer, Esq. Secretary. The names of 32 persons were earolled as members of the clab and Elihu Gibbs, colored, was one of the number. An Executive Committee was appainted, consisted of J. W. T. Fatkner, Dr. E. M. Alexander, Bon. W. A. Boyd, Capt. T. O. Willis and Dr. John Y. Murry.

Gen Grant on the Nomination of Hancock.

and a rigid enforcement of the fact canfidence act, as they did in '76, with perfect canfide hit the right null square on the head; and on white Clubs afford them such facilities as they and on the whole, as between ourselves and may need.

Raymond Gazette. In 1838 there were twenty-six Banks in the HARRY PRITON, Secretary.

The Democratic-Conservative Party Union and Planters' Bank Bonds. of Hinds.

In compliance with a call from the Chairman the County Executive Committee of the Democratic-Conservative party, met on Saturday, all of the State to bring suit in the name of the

One of the most important Presidential cantask year new to recent dry many to the task year new to recent dry many to the task year new to recent dry many to the task year new to recent dry many to the task year new to recent dry many to the most important Presidential cantask year new to recent dry many to the country lecturing as a reformed drunkard, and he had great formed drunkard, and he had great fo President who was not elected, in addition.

That great infamy, brought about by bribary and the consequences of the American people, and we cannot but thing the discreption of the American people, and we cannot but thing the discreption intend to that they will declare in November next.

The great infamy brought to be an one so brave, so able, as the forgery, and it was partially successful the American people, and we cannot but thing the forgery and it was partially successful the but I do say that none have been so tried that they will declare in November next. the district of Missessiph intend to against the perpetrators of that fearful stain as he, and proved himself to possess the lofty efforts of the benevolent were crowned with upon the American character, in a voice at self-control which induced the laying down efforts of the benevolent were crowned with a presented the following, which the following which the following which the following which unit members of the Conven-while an partition as will section as will sec climate, permit pre to add that the attraction country stands firmly at the Coerenton will receive my appared.

Very respectfully, culated to inspire confidence and awaken en-thurisms. The great feaud of 1876 is properly please remaining that nominations were need up to the public execution; the present administration is denounced for its glaring labuses in the civil service, notably, that it has House, for Representative in Congress distributed offices and positions as rewards thur-me in the District and moved his nomine for political and moral crimes of the bases. On character, the public lands must no longer be granted as presents to gigantic monopolies and bribes for partisan services, but must be In the first of the greenal howl against sile in the first of the greenal howl against sile in the first of the greenal howl against sile in the first of the greenal howl against sile in the first of the greenal howl against sile in the first of the greenal howl against sile in the first of the greenal howl against sile in the first of the greenal howl against sile in the first of the greenal howl against sile in the first of the greenal howl against sile in the first of the greenal howl against sile in the first of the greenal howl against sile in the greenal howless of the greenal how great and patriotic work we set out to do in the summer of 1875. We were successful in Extract from Senator Pendleton's Ratification all we undertook, but, through fraud and perjury we were robbed of the full fruits of our Gen. Hancook's nomination was forced upon labors and we beheld the inauguration of Mr. districts, and localities and States—not from the public crit—chi for a return to exercise. Its accumulated and concentrated volume communicated the Convention in thunder tones.

"Noticiously as the day comes."

Noticiously as the day comes. days of regular meeting. Should you desire | selections. it, at any time, dominants for bireclation will be furnished you, and should you for any special occasion require other speakers than those you have in your Clubs, they will be furnished upon application to this committee. And any suggestions or information which a President or other officer of a Club may think President or other officer of a Cliff may fining proper to forward to this committee, will be kindly received and thoughtfully considered.

Confident in the belief that the great body of the colored people of Hinds county are well disposed and patriotic, and not willing to vote for Mr. Garfield, who has been a leader for years of those men in Congress who have done years of those men in Congress who have done the color of the colo every thing in their power to humiliate, de- Columbus, Ga ...... grade and impoverish the Southern people, as well as to produce discord, demoralization and distress among all classes in the South, we invite them especially to join us and help to elect Hancock and English. They are deeply interested in good neighborship, peace, harmony and a rigid enforcement of the laws, and can washville, Tenn and a rigid enforcement of the laws, and can washville, Tenn and a rigid enforcement of the laws, and can washville, Tenn and a rigid enforcement of the laws, and can washville, Tenn and a rigid enforcement of the laws, and can washville, Tenn and a rigid enforcement of the laws, and can washville, Tenn and a rigid enforcement of the laws, and can washville, Tenn and the rigid enforcement of the laws, and can be recommended to the laws and the recommendation a his the right nail square on the head; and en and on the whole, as between ourselves and the horse track. I can't say that I'm'sorry for it.' The General had nothing to say, however in depreciation of Mr. Garfield, further than the remark that he had rather too many volumes of Congressional debates behind him to make a smooth and successful canvass onmake a smo

GEO. W. HARPER, Chairman,

This is a probability that the question of MARK TWAIN'S NEW STORY AND ITS MOR-Nuterior Democrat. MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. Massessipples repudiation of the Union and Pienters Bank banks may sgatu became promment. The Legislature of New York has re-coully passed a bill, which has been signed by rnell, authorizing the Attorney Gener-compelled to pay these disbilities, we shall not of the new convert when the meeting was be prepared is say that Confederate money

("Burnam-wood may come to Dunsinune"; but the people of Mississippi RAYMOND, July 17, 1880. will never be "compelled" to pay "these in the field remainded of the Benga ratio and the Benga ratio are readily Party of the fill-litered for a beauty in the fill district for a be part of every lover of law and order, of every | The special election deputies are appointed | One winter's night some masked burglars

Forewarned .- Forearmed.

Garfield's Platform.

Ness York Truth.] On the subject of the Currency his favorte figure in 329. On the subject of the Tariff his is usually On the subject of Free Trade he trades On Civil Service Reform he will depend

On the subject of Credit Mobilier he adocates no change in the style or shape of the American flag.
On the DeCodver claim he has nothing to What Gen. Weaver Expects.

He does not preiend to believe that the Southern Cities. The following is a list of census returns from eighteen Southern cities, with comparisons with the census of dred and eighty-six certificates were issued at the office of Dr. Rice, corner of Gravier and Front streets, over Menges' store, and at the CANONIZED.

JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 4, 1880.

cratic-Conservative party, met on Saturday, June 17th, at 11 o'clock.

What was it you gave. Jim Garfield.
You shall bribe which is not forgot?

Whit was it you do no joke to wear that yoke.
You shall be provided a spread a freeman shot.
And the previous gald of truth you sold
What was it you gave. Jim Garfield.
You scaling the feeling to be, chiefly, for the purpose of devising the means for and facilitating a complete more discussive being as the conservative bring smith the name of the State to be well of the state to be given the state to be state to be ward Mills minded from bookood; George Benton never did. Edward prospect to be supported by the chairman was alopted previous supported to small smith the name of the State to bring smith over; his salary was enlarged next day; he was the talk of the town, and its hero. An account of it was published. George Benton fell, regularly, every three months, but was faithfully rescued and wrought with every time, and good situatheir choice, and a man was imaggrated is to-lay the most brilliant example that zen and get a large sum of money at the until I was thirty. This happened when I sir? Come here instantly, ward Mills had been quietly making head was turning to go into the house, when I against adversity. He was still poor, but saw a stranger on horseback coming up Attorney General Devens has furnished and sufficient salaries and will give use a government of the convergence of the converge ton. A wide sympathy was felt for the widow and orphans of the dead man, and father?" all the newspipers in the land begged that "I know it is young all the banks in the land would testify their that is enough for me." apprelation of the fidelity and heroism of he murdered Cashier by coming forward don't like his looks, father." with a generous contribution of money in aid of his family, now bereft of support. The result was a mass of solid cash, amounting to upward of $500—an average of nearly of thy business, so ask no more questions; of a cent for each bank in the Union, and with that he went back to the barn. mostly for information on Chester A. Ar-The Cashier's own bank testified its gratitude by endeavoring to show (but humilia- said there had been letters on the subject al tingly (ailed in it) that the peerless servant's ready, and that she had been rather expectaccounts were not square, and that he him-self knocked his brains out with a bludgeon will pay well, and as Melissa is to be to escape detection and punishment.

that the region could produce. His grave suppose it was not a right thing to do, bu had fresh flowers on it every day, for a while, this handsome sick stranger, so hardly used and the head-stone bore these words, under and so surrounded with mystery, had rous a hand pointing aloft: "He has fought the ed in me a sincere sympathy for his loneli-

it that way, but it was so given.

The Cashier's family are in stringent cirmined to try the experiment.

exert themselves to obtain as members of the Clubs, every voter of the precinct. We suggest that the Clubs hold meetings on certain stated days, and that regular reports as to number of members, proceedings, &c., be made to this committee, with the list of officers and to this committee, with the list of officers and to this committee, with the list of officers and to this committee, with the list of officers and list of ground of consanguinity, and Judge Neilson, in the Brooklyn City Court, has confirmed it. The plaintiff is the woman who went some time ago to Judge Neilson for married supposing him to be her cousin, was in reality her brother. She was in great distress Judge Neilson recommended her to a lawyer, who began a suit to have the marriage declared nuil. The story of the marriage is told as follows: When Peterson was born his mother, who was not married supposing him to be her cousin, windows and say 'Good morning,' or offer him a flower or some ripe peaches, and finally to accompany the gentlemen in their rambles in the neighborhood.

"I need not tell you how all this restricted intercourse ended. We were soon deeply in love with each other, and love ever finds out the was when my brother put me in his care, "Not any, he can't! That's what you for. This 'ere dog is going long life-long wrong and suffering; of an intense life-long wrong and suffering in the great life-long wrong and suffer sent, gave him her name—l'eterson. His had many a nve minutes meeting no one sister was born two years later and, being sister was born two years later and, being knew of, and when these were impossible, a retained by her mother, was named Annie cose bush near his window hid for me the right and ability to manage my own estate a rose bush near his window hid for me the position I now hold, and my ability to come and ask Phœbe to redeem her children saw a great deal of each other, and it found him irresistible; he was so hand it yet come and ask Phœbe to redeem her children saw a great deal of each other, and it found him irresistible; he was so hand it yet come and ask Phœbe to redeem her runted, as she peeled a pair of runted, as she peeled a pair of runted, as she peeled a pair of runted. 191.418 supposed that they were consins. It is said that their mother did all in her power to that their meeting, although neither she nor anybody else suspected that they she nor anybody else suspected that they thought of marrying each other. Some time ago, however, she went to Europe, and they profited by her absence to get married. When she returned she went directly to the house of her son, and found her daughter of the marriage. She at once told her chill, without opposition or the marriage. She at once told her chill, without opposition or the marriage. She at once told her chill.

Jackson railroad depot, by Dr. George D. Dermyer. At the main office, Dr. Rice has secured the assistance of Drs. Watkins, Solomon, Kennedy, Park and Solomon, Solomo Their exgress explital was $82,000.00. The season of the color by the color of $15,000.00. The Mississpin failtread double, by first and earlier into your feels. They early first and earlier into your feels and they were his bit. Since the first of January the importance of $4,000.00. The Plantarr Bank, at Succession of $4,000.00. The plantarr Bank at Succession of $4,000.00. The plantarr Bank at Succession of $4,000.00. The plantarr Bank at Su

THE HAPPY HOUR.

The busy day is over.

The household work is done;
The cares that free the morning

The Atlantic Monthly for August contains the tale of Edward Mills and George Benton, by Mark Twain, which is as clever meived, and as to the outlook—which were highly satisfactory.

The Pritth Congressional District.

The

tions were found for him. Finally, he was taken around the country lecturing as a re-

The detectives hunted down the criminals; the chief one proved to be George Ben- tleman of fine family, who is in bad health.

George Benton was araigned for trial, very needful." Then everybody seemed to forget the widow, George. Everything that money and mini-ence could do was done to save him, but it all failed; he was sentenced to death. Straightway the Governor was besieged with petitions for commutation or pardon; they were brought by tearful young girls; by were brought by tearful young girls; by sorrowful old maids; by deputations of pathetic widows; by shoals of impressive orphans. But no, the Governor—for once—bars. But no, the Governor—for once—would not yield.

Silks.

Silks.

Sound in it a charm quite in keeping with ber own youthful dreams.

One cold night in the middle of January how appear in some pieces of nums eloth.

"This doctor I had disliked at sight and I soon began to imagine that I had good both felt it to be exhausted—at least for lower the old subject until both felt it to be exhausted—at least for lower the old subject until both felt it to be exhausted—at least for lower the old subject until both felt it to be exhausted—at least for lower the old subject until both felt it to be exhausted—at least for lower the old subject until both felt it to be exhausted—at least for lower the old subject until both felt it to be exhausted—at least for lower the old subject until both felt it to be exhausted—at least for lower the old subject until both felt it to be exhausted—at least for lower the old subject until both felt it to be exhausted—at least for lower the old subject until both felt it to be exhausted—at least for lower the old subject until both felt it to be exhausted—at least for lower the old subject until both felt it to be exhausted—at least for lower the old subject until both felt it to be exhausted—at least for lower the old subject until both felt it to be exhausted—at least for lower the old subject until both felt it to be exhausted—at least for lower the old subject until both leaves the lower the old subject until both leaves the lower the lower the old subject until be called the lower the lower leaves the lower the lower leaves the lower the lower leaves the l

The glad news flew all around. From that time forth his cell was always full of girls kind. Some days he insisted that Mr. snowing heavily, aunt; to-morrow we can and women and fresh flowers; all the day Compton was too ill to go out, though the long there was prayer, and hymn-singing, and thanksgivings, and homilies, and tears, again, mother said, he would take from him with never an interruption, except an oc- all his books, though he pleaded urgently casional five-minute internfission for refresh- for him.

Dubuque Tims.

Have faded with the sun ;

And in the tender twilight, I sit in bappy rest.
With my darling little baby Asleep upon my breast. White lids with silken fringes,

Shut cut the waning light: A little hand close folded Holds mamma's fingers tight; And in their soft white wrappings, Harper's Weekly.]

so. I was very like you then, Julia. I am hill forty-three now, remember," marriage, I mean, aunt ?"

"Then he died, or went away?" "Or deserted you?" "Then you deceived him, I suppose?"

"I did not." "What ever happened, then? Was h poor, or crippled, or something dreadful? "He was rich and handsome." 'Suppose you tell me about him." "I never talk about him to any one." "Did it happen in the old place "

"Yes, Julia. I never left Ryelands "Was he a farmer's son in the neighbor "He was a fine city gentleman." "Oh, aunt, how interesting! Put down more.

your embroidery and tell me about it; you sences from the town; there were ill reports sences from the town; there were ill reports could fetch him, which I immediately did. "He was a dark, unpleasant-looking man, friend of peace and good government of every and would surely come some day and claim and had a masterful way with him, even to land.

The special election deputies are appointed of the surely come some day and claim and had a masterful way with him, even to land. They command forced their way into the bank, and found and had a masterful way with him, even to father, that I disliked; but after a short, me, But they left in three days, and Meland. They command the surely come some day and claim forced their way into the bank, and found father, that I disliked; but after a short, me, But they left in three days, and Meland. They command the surely come some day and claim forced their way into the bank, and found father, that I disliked; but after a short, me, But they left in three days, and Meland.

"Yes, he and his patient, a young gen "Do you know the young gentleman,

"I know it is young Alfred Compton-"And the dark man who has just left? "Nobody wants thee to like his looks "Mother was not at all astonished. Sh married at Christmas, ready money will be "About dark a carriage arrived. It conand orphans in their solicitude for poor tained two gentlemen and several large George. Everything that money and influtrunks. I had been watching for it behind

Now, George Benton experienced religion. cause to hate him. His conduct to his that night. Julia drew aside the heavy ming.

"One afternoon the postman brought Dr. This sort of thing continued up to the Orman a letter, which seemed to be imporvery gallows, and George Benton went proudly home, in the black cap, before a wailing audience of the sweetest and best Mr. Compton did not leave the house. I ness and suffering, and I walked through good fight."

The brave Cachier's head-stone has this inscription: "Be pure, honest, sober, industrious, considerate, and you will never—"

Nobody knows who gave the order to leave it that way, but it was so given.

The brave Cachier's head-stone has this inscription: "Be pure, honest, sober, industrious, considerate, and you will never—"

Nobody knows who gave the order to leave it that way, but it was so given.

The brave Cachier's head-stone has this inscription: "Be pure, honest, sober, industriug, and I warked through that part of the garden into which his windows looked. We had been politely requested to avoid it, 'because the sight of strangers in that part of the garden into which his windows looked. We had been politely requested to avoid it, 'because the sight of strangers in the part of the garden into which his windows looked. We had been politely requested to avoid it, 'because the sight of strangers in the part of the garden into which his windows looked. We had been politely requested to avoid it, 'because the sight of strangers in the part of the garden into which his windows looked. We had been politely requested to avoid it, 'because the sight of strangers in the part of the garden into which his windows looked. We had been politely requested to avoid it, 'because the sight of strangers in the part of the garden into which his windows looked. We had been politely requested to avoid it, 'because the sight of strangers in the part of the garden into which his windows looked. We had been politely requested to avoid it, 'because the sight of strangers in the part of the garden into which his windows looked. We had been politely requested to avoid it, 'because the sight of strangers in the part of the garden into which his windows looked. We had been politely requested to avoid it, 'because the sight of strangers in the part of the garden into which his windows looked. We had been politely requested to avoid it.

MARK TWAIN. he stopped and helped me, saying all the while I know not what, only that it seemed to me the most beautiful language I ever advice, telling him that she had just dis- ted it in many ways; and in the course of covered that her husband, whom she had time Dr. Ormon began to recognize its value. adopted him and, with her husband's con- the way to make himself understood. We he became my true friend. To his skill sent, gave him her name-Peterson. His had many a five minutes' meeting no one and patience I owe my restoration to perfect there and was informed for the first time of the marriage. She at once told her children of their relationship, and they parted. Idea, but I certainly did believe that Dr. than in the days of their first courtship.

She can not even call them a "silly" or "foolish" couple, or use any other relieving would be no more than fair for the dog to sail in with me. Come here, Leonidus!" It is said that they have not met since.—
N. Y. World.

How a Little Boy Faced Death.

Orman was keeping Alfred sick for some purpose of his own, and I determined to take imply less than supernatural wisdom and intelligence. "No one but those who have suspicion. So one evening, when we were known him as long as I have," she continually avers "see conductor, as he felt a shiver go up his legs, take your dog if you can get it or but two or three or a single flower—a rose, a pink, a daisy, and you intelligence. "No one but those who have known him as long as I have," she continually avers the cars start?"

No row after the cars start?" wish to see his relatives. A ten-years old, whose legs were recently "He trembled violently, and seemed in perior informatio the greatest distress, and only by the ten- of my bushand. "He trembled violently, and seemed in perior information and infallible judgment very much perplexed, and at a loss how to act. At length he said, 'Miss Phoebe, I must go to the village for a couple of hours: THE STORY OF HER DEATH AS TOLD' BY AN O hearts that break and give to sign I think Mr. Alfred will sleep until my return, but if not, will you try and amuse

I promised gladly, and Dr. Orman went back to the village with the messenger. No sooner was he out of sight than Alfred appeared, and we rambled about the garden.

One were gradent than the must lay down and sevening she tole him he must lay down and sevening she tole him he must lay down and sooner was he out of sight than Alfred appeared, and we rambled about the garden.

One mistus said he must have day and in the evening she tole him he must lay down and it single breath or echology that the result of single breath or echology that the message of single breath or echology that the message breath or echology that the message breath or echology that the must lay down and soone was he out of sight than Alfred appeared, and we rambled about the garden.

One mistus said he must lay down and so soone was he out of sight than Alfred appeared, and we rambled about the garden.

One mistus said he must lay down and soone was he out of sight than Alfred appeared, and we rambled about the garden. peared, and we rambled about the garden, as happy as two lovers could be. But the day was extremely hot, and as the afternoon advanced the heat increased. I pronoon advanced, the heat increased. I pro-posed then that we should walk up the hill, him nearly sobbing, in a corner, and went and stood by myself in the open door. In the very height of the storm I saw my father, Dr. Orman, and three of our workmen coming through the wood. They evidently coming through the wood. They evidently

"'Miss Wakefield,' he answered, 'this is laid on. Me, Betty and Mary went up and well tried, pure exalted and altogether thank and noise realist noise realist and noise realist noise realist

"So they said, Julia. His frantic terror was the only sign I saw of it; but Dr. Orman told my father that he was at times really dangerous, and that he was annually paid a large sum to take charge of him, as he became uncontrollable in an asylum."

"Did you see him again?"

"No. I found a little note in the rosebush, saying that he was not mad; that he had a small frame house built over her grave. He said he didn't want the rain to he had been a softener for a grave. He said he didn't want the rain to he his wife.

"So they said, Julia. His frantic terror was and moaning so pitiful. Every now and then he would uncover the face and kiss it, and watch to see if there was any sign of life. When she was brief there was any sign of life. When she was brief there was any sign of life. When she was brief the rain to see if there was any sign of life. When she was brief the rain to see if there was any sign of life. When she was brief the rain to see if there was any sign of life. When she was brief to red raute mail Agent, on the Vicksburg & Meridian Railroad, Vice Patterson Sharp, removed.

Columbus Index.!

Mrs. E. B. Blythe died in this clay at the residence of Dr. McCabe on Sunday and was buried yesterday. She was the relief of the life.

A. K. Blythe. She had been a softener of the soil life. remembered my promise to be his wife, and would surely come some day and claim Harris put up the manufacture. Manufacture has been a sufferer for a fall on her. It remained there until Mr. Harris put up the manufacture. Manufacture has been a sufferer for a fall on her. It remained there until Mr. Harris put up the manufacture.

You know that he left me all he had when he died, nearly two years ago, I remembered my own lonely youth, and thought would give you a fairer chance, dear.' "Did you ever hear of him again, aunt " white gowns. "Of him, never. His elder brother died died many years ago. I suppose Alfred lied many years since; he was very frail and lelicate. I thought it was refinement and man pearl, beauty then; I knew now it was ill health." "Poor Aunt!"

"Nay, child, I was very happy while my dream lasted; and I never will believe but that Alfred in his love for me was quite sane, and perhaps more sincere than many

After this confidence Miss Phube seemed tween the slashes tied in a hard knot. to take a great pleasure in speaking of the ittle romance of her youth. Often the old to waist, with or without overskirt, seem to and young maidens sat in the twilight dis- be the favorite, as they retain their fresh Copiahan cussing the probabilities of poor Alfred ness longer than the plain skirts. Compton's life and death and every discussnowing heavily, aunt; to-morrow we can have a sleigh-ride. "Why, there a sleigh at our door! Who can it be? A gentleman, aunt, and he is coming here."

"Close the curtains, child. It is my lawer, Mr. Howard. He promised to call to-

Mr. Alfred Compton. Julia was disappointed, to say the least, but she met him with enthusiasm. Perhaps Aunt Phébe had quite unconsciously magnified the beauty of the youthful Alfred; certainly this was not handsome. He was sixty at least, his fair curling locks had vanished, and his fine figure was slightly bent. But the clear sensitive face remained, and he was still dressed with sorundous care.

Lucinda and Leonidus.

Lucinda and Leonidus.

Lucinda and Leonidus.

Lucinda and Leonidus.

The President of the State local in the certificate of the public health. The President of the State local in the certificate of the public health. The President of the State local in the certificate of the public health. The President of the State local in the certificate of the public health. The President of the State local in the certificate of the public health. The President of the State local in the certificate of the public health. The President of the State local in the cate, certifying that the physician who wouches for the applicant is "remainable practical in the physician of the public health. The President of the State local in the cate, certifying that the physician who wouches for the applicant is then taken to Dr. Rice at the State working huilding or his assistants, at the depots and steam boat landings, and they in tart, certify, after the clear sensitive face remained, and he was still dressed with sorundous care. The Cashier's family are in stringent cirk cumstances now, it is said; but no matter; a lot of appreciative people, who were not willing that an act so brave and true as his should go unrewarded, have collected —42, one—and built a memorial church with it. delicious little banquet, and Alfred drank "You have been his first glass of wine with an old-fashioned boss of this train." grace "to his promised wife, Miss Phoebe

Wakefield, best and loveliest of women." it; and hand in hand the two old lovers sat, while Alfred told his and little story of life-long wrong and suffering; of an intensellipervous, self-conscious nature driven to extrapity by cored was a negro, and a white man by Miss Phœbe laughed, but she dearly liked

"It cannot be denied," he added with a sigminear oull of his cigar, "that the Democraminear oull of his cigar, "that the Democrahis the party which has, and will continue to hold the power in the future to protect them in person and property, as different of this counstantant oull of his cigar, "that the Democrahold the power in the future to protect them in person and property, as different of this counstantant oull of his cigar, "that the Democrahold the power in the future to protect them in person and property, as different of this counstantant oull of his cigar, "that the Democrahold the power in the future to protect them in person and property, as different of this counsay annah, Ga.

Savannah, Ga.

Savan ually avers, "can possibly estimate the sudistinguis attended blottered

Min. D. Es chin

Andrew Jackson's Wife.

OLD SERVANT.

Save whitening lip and fading treases.

Till death pours out its cordial wine.

Show drepped from Mesery's grashing press. master in Nashville the next day and in the But he became suddenly like a child in his terror, and it was only with the greatest difficulty I got him within its shelter.

"As peal after peal of thunder crashed above us, Alfred seemed to lose all control of himself, and seriously offended, I left him nearly sobbing, in a corner, and went and stood by myself in the open door. In coming through the wood. They evidently suspected our sheltering place, for they came directly toward it.

"Alfred!" shouted Dr. Orman, in the tone of an angry master, 'where are you, sir? Come here instantly.

"My pettedness instantly vanished, and I said: 'Doctor, you have no right to speak to Alfred in that way. He is going to be my husband, and I shall not permit it any amore.'

"My be tedness instantly to speak to Alfred in that way. He is going to be my husband, and I shall not permit it any amore."

"My be tedness instantly to speak to Alfred in that way. He is going to be my husband, and I shall not permit it any amore."

"My be tedness instantly to speak to Alfred in that way. He is going to be my husband, and I shall not permit it any amore."

"My be tedness instantly to speak to Alfred in that way. He is going to be my husband, and I shall not permit it any amore."

"My be tedness instantly to speak to Alfred in that way. He is going to be my husband, and I shall not permit it any stairs for ten blankets for the body to be stairs for the body to fetched them down. They were spread on Meridian Mercury.

A new hairpin has a ball head of Moorish bed. enamel, which opens, disclosing a large Ro- Yazoo Herald.) Liama cloth, with a bordering of many lines of bright color, is made up into pretty tennis dresses.

\[
\begin{align*} \text{An article, noticing the sad death of Mrs.} \\ \text{Thomas, wife of Prof. E. N. Thomas, of Benton, was written for this paper last week, but inadvertently escaped publication. The deceased by a row of slashings at narrow intervals, and a tape-like bit of cloth bentality and a tape-like bit of cloth bentality. The same of the sad death of Mrs. Thomas, wife of Prof. E. N. Thomas, of Benton, was written for this paper last week, but inadvertently escaped publication. The decease of was a most excellent christian lady, and "none knew her but to love her; none named her but to praise. She had only been married a few short months when death of Mrs. intervals, and a tape-like bit of cloth between the slashes tied in a hard knot.

In summer dresses the three deep flounces, to waist, with or without overskirt, seem to the moon, fans, fishes, and dragons peculiar tember. to these styles, are seen this season im lawns and percales, as well as in foulard

Soon began to imagine that I had good both felt it to be exhausted—at least for four yard strips of embroidery for trim- cursion only to go back as emigranta Red velvet collars and cuffs are worn with Health Passports. white coats in Paris. They are also placed on jerseys, and are then embroidered with How THEY ARE TO BE OBTAINED AND gold and placed flat, so as to look like neck- WHAT THEY ARE IN NEW ORLEANS. Parasols covered with foulard chintz, are For the information of paraons who may have been brought into vogue.

the clear sensitive face remained, and he was still dressed with scrupulous care.

The two women made much of him. In half an hour Delmonico had furnished a delicious little banquet, and Alfred drank

"You have been pinted out to me as the rivers and railroads at regular distances."

"Yes'm," was his modest reply. Well, I'm going to Detroit fur the old you for. This 'ere dog is going 'long in this and were taken to Satartia for trial. The regro confessed to the killing, and said that Louis Rosenberg gave him one hundred and

"Madame," replied the conductor, as he

"No row after the cars start?" Since the first of January the impor-

Two in 2 00 1 00 4 00 0 0 12 00 10 00 00 Three in 3 00 5 00 00 0 00 13 0 12 0 13 0 00 00 00 Four in 4 00 6 00 2 00 12 00 10 00 15 00 00 00 Five in 5 00 7 5 012 00 15 00 10 00 10 00 75 00 Special, or local natures, 10 waits per line SELECTED MISCELLANY.

Boudoir sacques with "angel" sleeves Mr. Marcus Warren, postmaster at Cush-Cardinal satin belts with a gold edge are pretty when worn with either black or white gowns.

A new hairpin has a hall head of Magrich had pretty when worn with either black or en

J. L. Mende, Eng. of Westville, was in our Japanese and Turkish designs, showing city on Monday, and informed as that he con-

A number of persons, last week, went from Parasols covered with foulard chintz, are now shown it shop windows, set up against a "Lee of dress goods to match, and are very "taking," as they show the effect of the costume.

The Marie Therese which is made with a doout her old lover until there had sprung no anew in her heart a very strong sentimental affection for his memory; and when the servant announced a visitor on business, she arose with a sigh from her reflections, and went into the reception room.

In a few minutes Julia heard her voice, in rapid, excited tone; and ere she could decide whether to go to her or not, Aunt Phobe entered the room, holding by the hand a gentleman whom she announced as Mr. Alfred Compton. Julia was disap-

Murder in Yazoo County. On Friday night last, as Dr. Wiley T. ar." the name of Louis Rosenberg, living in Mechanicsburg, were arrested on suspicion. "Rules be hanged! My old man can be fifty dollars to kill Dr. Williams. A large banged around by everybody, and he never crowd soon gathered, prepared to lynch the demands his rights; but Lucinda hain't prisoners, but through the advoitness of the Deputy Sheriff, Mr. Frank Wilson, the "Madame, let me" _____ prisoners were conveyed safely across the "I don't want no clawing off!" she inter- Yazoo river and a guard placed over the Flowers on the Table.

Set flowers on your table-a whole notegay creation, and gives you a link with the poein that have done it most honor. Flowers on the morning table are especially suited to them. They look like the happy wakening of "Then that settles that, and I'm much the creation; they bring the perfume of the breach of nature into your room; they seem